

Alberto Roda

Milan, Italy

Member Firm – Cosmo Legal Group

Alberta Roda focuses on bankruptcy proceedings and restructuring operations, including by means of agreements for the purchase, sale and lease of business units and assets, arrangements with creditors and restructuring agreements, as well as bankruptcy receivers in connection with liability actions. His non-contentious practice includes advising companies operating in various industry sectors, as well as auditors and financial advisors, in all corporate and business matters. He advises both Italian and foreign clients.

Previously, Mr. Roda served as a Judge of the Tribunal of Monza in 1993 and as a Member of the Council of the Court of Appeal of Milan in 2005. Throughout his decade as a Judge, he served as Delegated Judge of the Bankruptcy Division, as well as Civil Judge, Enforcement Judge and Judge of the Company Division of the Tribunal of Monza. He resigned from the Judiciary in 2005 and was subsequently admitted to the Milan Bar.

Mr. Roda is the author of several publications on bankruptcy and enforcement law for specialized reviews and regularly participates as a lecturer at conferences and seminars in Italy.
