

Justin Walsh

Seattle, Washington

Member Firm – Gleam Law

Justin Walsh focuses on civil matters. He represents various clients, including legal marijuana, hemp, and CBD businesses.

Mr. Walsh has received recognition for his successful representation of complex business litigation cases, as well as personal injury, medical malpractice, class action, and intellectual property matters. His practice extends to copyright and trademark matters, Consumer Protection Act, CAN-SPAM.

In addition, Mr. Walsh also handles matters of regulatory compliance surrounding hemp and CBD – including FDA labeling compliance, a topic he regularly speaks on nationally.

Mr. Walsh served as the Recent Developments and Technology Editor on the Seattle Journal for Social Justice. He also served as a judicial extern to the Honorable Justice Mary Fairhurst on the Washington State Supreme Court, where he authored an opinion providing partial privacy protection under the public records act for unsubstantiated allegations of abuse against school teachers.

Mr. Walsh is the past Chair of the King County Civil Rights Commission and he previously served on the City of Issaquah Planning Policy Commission.

Currently, Mr. Walsh serves as a Pro Tem Judge in Washington.

Email: justin@gleamlaw.com

Phone: 206.693.2900

---

Education

Seattle University School of Law
J.D. Cum Laude

Bar Admissions

Alaska
Washington