

Lizzie Fanckboner

Associate – Denver

Lizzie Fanckboner focuses on corporate transactions, including as to M&A, finance, licensing agreements, and other deals; regulatory compliance; and other regulatory and corporate matters.

Ms. Fanckboner often works in relation to heavily-regulated emerging industries and technologies, including in relation to legalized cannabis and legalized psychedelics. Particularly, she counsels dispensary owners, infused product manufacturers, cultivators, transporters, and other businesses, including those seeking new cannabis and psychedelics licenses, through the complex and interconnected state and local regulatory frameworks. Lizzie has represented clients before various regulatory authorities in connection with applications and license acquisitions. She has also assisted clients with conducting complex due diligence, and identifying, reviewing, and drafting documents necessary for license acquisitions and applications.
