

Anne-Marie Pecoraro

Paris, France

Partner, Member Firm – UGGC Avocats

Anne-Marie Pecoraro, founder of A Turquoise Law Firm, focuses on intellectual property, information technology, media, and other commercial matters. Ms. Pecoraro possesses over 25 years of experience with contracts; litigation; communication strategies; and copyrights, trademarks and designs. She works often in relation to the cosmetics, fashion, music, audio-visual industry, and live events industries. She acts as counsel and litigator for both French and foreign clients (particularly companies based in the United States, Switzerland, India, Hong Kong, Singapore and China).

Ms. Pecoraro often practices at the intersection of intellectual property, corporate, tax, labor, international, and pro bono issues.

Ms. Pecoraro is an active board member of the French “Observatory of the audio-visual transformation” (OTA), the Elyx Foundation, and the “Concert d’Astrée d’Emmanuelle Haim.” She is also an IFTA Panel Arbitrator.

Email: am.pecoraro@uggc.com

Phone: +33 153768170

Languages: French, English, Italian

---

Education

Assas Law School – Paris University

DEA of Business & Economic Law – Nice University
Master’s Degree

Institut des Hautes Etudes Internationales – Nice University

Bar Admissions

Paris