

David I. Greenbaum

New York and Miami, United States

Partner, Member Firm: Rimon PC

Mr. Greenbaum specializes in matters of intellectual property transactions and due diligence, patent counseling and prosecution, intellectual property litigation and trademark and copyright.

He is an experienced property attorney who provides strategic counsel to clients on trademark and design matters across a wide range of industries, including fashion, cosmetics, entertainment, beverage and pharmaceutical. He handles risk evaluation for trademark use and registration, prosecution, policing, enforcement, and worldwide portfolio management, as well as disputes before the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board and other tribunals.

Mr. Greenbaum is a trained mechanical engineer, who understands and is interested in, complex scientific concepts. He's highly experienced in the area of soft-IP, with a focus on trademarks and designs. His practice is also transactional in nature and he negotiates and drafts various intellectual property agreements, including licenses and co-existence agreements, as well as conducts due diligence on IP portfolios in connection with mergers and acquisitions.

Email: david.greenbaum@rimonlaw.com

Phone: (646) 779-0787

Languages: English

Education

Benjamin N. Cardozo School of Law, NY
J.D.

Lehigh University, PA
B.S.M.E.

Bar Admissions

New York

New Jersey

Florida