

Dmitry Kunitsa

Moscow Russia and New York, United States
Partner, Member Firm: Rimon PC

Mr. Kunitsa specializes in matters of international affairs, sports, entertainment, recreation and real estate. His practice is mainly focused on assisting foreign legal entities and individuals with their investments in the region of Eastern Europe and Russia and helping said companies and nationals do business in other countries.

On inbound investments, Mr. Kunitsa focuses on matters of real estate, mergers & acquisitions, corporate, civil law matters and compliance. His notable projects include the acquisition and reconstruction of landmark properties in Moscow and St. Petersburg, servicing the coverage of the Olympic Games and Soccer World Cup and he also focuses on assisting his private clients with structuring their investments in assets and ongoing businesses.

Mr. Kunitsa possesses almost 30 years of experience advising clients on doing business in Russia and other countries of Eastern Europe. He has successfully argued cases decided by the Constitutional Court of Russia and Supreme Court of Russia and advised a number of NHL teams on signing contracts with Russian hockey players.

Email: dmitry.kunitsa@rimonlaw.com

Phone: +7-903-729-9819

Languages: English, Russian

Education

University of Alabama, AL
M.C.L

Kazan State University, RU
J.D.

Bar Admissions

New York

Russia