

Daniel Amezcuita

Mexico City, Mexico

Partner, Member Firm: Serrano Galicia Abogados

Mr. Amezcuita focuses on administrative and constitutional litigation, as well as customs and international trade.

He has successfully represented several transnational companies in the constitutional challenge of various legal provisions, and determination of tax credits by different federal and local authorities, among other types of disputes. Daniel has been legal advisor to several of the main national and international import and export companies in Mexico in different types of projects.

He has postgraduate studies in Tax Law, a diploma in American Law, and a specialization in European Union Law, a diploma in International Commercial Arbitration and Diploma in Anti-Corruption, among others.

Mr. Amezcuita has participated as a professor at the Universidad Panamericana, Universidad Iberoamericana, Escuela Libre de Derecho and the Instituto Tecnológico Autónomo de México, teaching various subjects of international law and taxes.

He is currently a member of ANADE and the International Academy of Customs Law and the Arbitration Commission of the International Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. Amezcuita has been coordinator of the Administrative Law Commission of the BMA and of the Administrative Law Committee of the ANADE and is recognized by the most relevant international publications and directories as an expert in his practice areas.

Email: damezcuita@galicia.com.mx

Phone: +52 (55) 5540 9200

Languages: English, Spanish

---

Education:

Bar Admissions

Mexico