

Juan Pablo Cervantes

Mexico City, Mexico

Counselor, Member Firm: Serrano Galicia Abogados

Mr. Cervantes focuses on banking and finance, mergers and acquisitions, international trade and corporate affairs in general.

He has also advised various associations on relevant aspects of multilateral trade agreements, such as the Pacific Alliance, and participated in the “Cuarto de Conjunto” during the renegotiation of NAFTA.

Mr. Cervantes is president of the Mexico-US Bilateral Committee of the Mexican Council of Foreign Trade (COMCE), as well as Vice President of the Mexico-Canada Bilateral Committee of such association. He also presides the International Trade Committee of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce (CANCHAM) in Mexico as well as being member of the Board of Directors of this organization

Email: jpcervantes@galicia.com.mx

Phone: +52 (55) 5540 9200

Languages: English, Spanish

Education:

Escuela Libre de Derecho
Law Degree

Georgetown University
LL.M

Bar Admission

Mexico