

Catherine Chappellet-Rempp

Paris, France

Senior Counsel, Member Firm: UGGC Avocats

Catherine Chappellet-Rempp focuses on French, European and Moroccan competition law as well as distribution law, Intellectual property and personal data.

She advises clients with respect to the organization of their distribution networks (exclusive and selective distribution, franchise, commercial agents) and their commercial practices.

She also handles litigation in connection with commercial agreements, termination of commercial relations or unfair competition.

With respect to IP law and Personal Data, Ms. Chappellet-Rempp regularly assists clients in the negotiation and drafting of agreements relating to their trademarks, designs and models and copyrights (licensing, assignment, coexistence), and with the implementation of personal data processing and compliance with national and E.U. laws. She also provides litigation assistance in the fields of trademarks, designs and models and copyright, as well as in related matters of unfair competition.

Catherine Chappellet-Rempp also has in-depth knowledge of consumer, advertising and sale promotion law in particular for sectors subject to specific regulations such as the alcoholic beverages. She provides assistance in the context of administrative investigations initiated by the General Directorate for Competition Policy, Consumer Affairs and Fraud Control.
