

Corinne Khayat

Paris, France

Partner, Member Firm: UGGC Avocats

Corinne Khayat focuses on mergers and acquisitions and litigation. In addition, she is experienced in intellectual property matters, particularly in the luxury, industrial, parapharmacy, and service industries. She is the co-head of the IP-IT and antitrust departments.

She assists clients with distribution law and the drafting of complex commercial contracts. She regularly represents her clients before the courts and advises in all areas of French and EU Intellectual Property and Information Technologies law and has experience in complex trademark and copyright litigation.

Ms. Khayat assists French and foreign clients, mostly large and medium size companies and public bodies, in various sectors such as food, retail, services, luxury (cosmetics, perfumes), arts and building materials industries and regularly advises in distribution law and assists clients in setting-up distribution networks. She also handles cases as a correspondent for many foreign law firms.

Ms. Khayat has been a professor of European Union competition law at the Institut Catholique and a lecturer in competition law at the University Paris I, Pantheon Sorbonne.

Email: c.khayat@uggc.com

Phone: (01) 56 69 70 71

Languages: English, French

Education

University of Paris V-René Descartes

JD

Bar Admissions

Paris