

Daniela Antão

Lisbon, Portugal

Counsel, Member Firm – BIND Sociedade de Advogados

Daniela Antão focuses on consumer law, technology, fintech, and telecommunications, media and content and regulation, competition, and union law.

As well as her practice with BIND, Ms. Antão is counsel for Portugal Towerhouse LLP – London, since 2015, law and consultancy firm serving the regulated sectors of the economy, notably electronic communications, post, health care, transport & aviation, water, energy. She also acts as external counsel for Cruz Vilaça Advogados where she advises on European Union Law, Competition Law and Protection of Fundamental Rights.

Ms. Antão is also the Regulatory Director and Senior Privacy Officer of GII – Global Intelligence Insight (February 2020 – Present) – a London-based cyber intelligence start-up specialised in business intelligence, counter terrorism and cyber warfare, social network analysis, statistical and mathematical analysis of behavioural patterns.

She was previously the Secretary-General for APRITEL – Association of Electronic Communications Operators – the national sector-specific trade association whose members include Vodafone, British Telecom, Verizon, and has held other notable consultancy roles throughout her practice.

Email: da@bindrl.pt

Phone: (+351) 213 10 41 20

Languages: English, Spanish, French

Education

Nova SBE, The Lisbon MBA Católica in collaboration with MIT Sloan School of Management
MBA

Law King's College, London
Post-Grad – EU Competition

Lisbon Lusíada University
Law Degree – Juridical-Economic Sciences

Bar Admissions

Lisbon