

Mohamed Ghaith

Detroit, Michigan

Junior Partner, Member Firm: Scott Roberts Law

Mr. Ghaith specializes in matters of cannabis, employment, intellectual property law, lab, employment, and civil rights. .

Mr. Ghaith focuses on aiding clients not just with cannabis concerns, but also with issues related to employment and intellectual property law. His fluency in Arabic and his self-motivated and passionate work ethic makes him an invaluable member of Scott Roberts Law.

His legal education includes internships with the Maurice and Jane Sugar Law Center for Economic and Social Justice and the Arab Civil Rights League.

Email: mohamed@scottrobertslaw.com

Phone: (248)-243-4510

Languages: English, Arabic

Education

Wayne State University – Law School

J.D.

Honors: Bronze Key Award

University of Michigan

B.A.

Bar Admissions

Michigan