

David Loxton

Johannesburg, South Africa

Partner, Member Firm: Schindlers Attorneys

Mr. Loxton specializes in matters of governance, regulation, employment, litigation, corporate crime prevention and investigation and has advised across all sectors of industry, as well as state-owned enterprises and government departments.

He has also acted as an advisor on highly sensitive issues involving fraud and corruption and has guided clients through risk mitigation and civil recovery as well as on disciplinary proceedings against implicated employees and individuals.

He began his career as a state prosecutor, working in both Cape Town and Pretoria and gained experience prosecuting a wide range of street crimes, including murder, rape, robbery, drug-related crimes, corruption, forgery and theft.

Following his time as a prosecutor, David was in-house counsel at a major listed entity, before moving to private practice. He has generally been instructed by Group Counsel, CEOs or boards as well as heads of departments and senior officials within the government.
