

Alex Shear

San Diego, California

Partner - Bona Law

Alex Shear focuses on diverse antitrust practice, representing large and small clients in a variety of industries in many different sorts of matters and represented clients in civil and criminal Section 1 and Section 2 litigations from inception to trial, and in government (DOJ and FTC) investigations.

With more than 15 years of experience, Ms. Shear has extensive experience on counseling clients in connection with antitrust matters, including in the areas of pricing conduct, pay-for-delay challenges, and merger reportability. In addition to antitrust matters, Ms. Shear has represented clients in other business cases, including securities, commercial, and bankruptcy litigations, among others.
