

Lori A. Loo

Of Counsel – Los Angeles

Lori A. Loo is a seasoned family law attorney, focusing on complex custody disputes and high-asset divorce matters. Ms. Loo brings over three decades of experience handling a wide range of family law issues, including spousal and child support, property division, and domestic violence proceedings.

Ms. Loo has earned a reputation for delivering strategic and effective advocacy in high-stakes and emotionally charged cases. Her practice includes contested custody matters involving monitored visitation, move-away requests, parental alienation, addiction issues, and minor's counsel. She has worked extensively with property matters, including cases involving high-income earners, business interests, stock options, and intellectual property.

Ms. Loo is also experienced in litigating domestic violence restraining orders and their impact on custody arrangements. Ms. Loo's notable achievements include setting aside a prior purported marital settlement and recovering over $30 million in withheld property, as well as representing both payors and payees in high-net-worth support cases involving forensic accounting and complex compensation structures.
